Re: United States v. Steven Glisson, 13 Cr. 345 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

The Government respectfully writes, on behalf of the parties, to update the Court regarding defendant Steven Glisson's pending violations of supervised release and the related underlying New York state charges.

As the Court is aware, Glisson was arrested on or about April 19, 2023 in the Bronx, New York, and charged with (1) criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree, in violation of N.Y.P.L. 265.03(01)(B), a class C felony, (2) criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree, in violation of N.Y.P.L. 256.03(03), a class C felony, (3) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree, in violation of N.Y.P.L. 265.02(05)(II), a class D felony, (4) criminal possession of a weapon in the fourth degree, in violation of 265.01(01), a class A misdemeanor, and (5) forgery in the third degree, in violation of N.Y.P.L. 170.05, a class A misdemeanor. Glisson was released on bail conditions in his state case. On April 24, 2023, Glisson was arrested for violating the terms of his supervised release, based on the allegations contained in his New York state charges. The next day, April 25, 2023, Glisson was presented and arraigned before the Honorable Ona T. Wang, United States Magistrate Judge, who ordered Glisson released upon the satisfaction of bail conditions. Dkt. 302. Glisson satisfied those bail conditions and was released on April 28, 2023.

Based on information provided by U.S. Probation Officer Patrick Fountain, the parties understand that Glisson is currently complying with his bail conditions and his conditions of supervised release, other than the violations specified in the Probation Department's April 20, 2023 report and request for a warrant. The state charges against Glisson remain pending, and the next appearance in the case is scheduled for February 23, 2024. The Government obtained several files from the Bronx District Attorney's Office regarding the state charges, and has produced those records to counsel for Glisson. In addition, the Government understands, based on information previously provided by the Assistant District Attorney in charge of Glisson's state case, that the Bronx District Attorney's Office also produced, via counsel. The Assistant District Attorney in charge of Glisson's state case no longer appears to be at the Bronx District Attorney's Office, and the Government is attempting to reach the appropriate Assistant District Attorney for further updates on the case although, as described above, the next appearance in the case is scheduled for February 23, 2024.

In light of the pending state charges, the discovery related to those charges, and the pending appearance date of February 23, 2024 in the state case, the parties respectfully request that the Court set a control date in approximately 45 days for the parties to report back to the Court regarding the status of state case, whether a disposition has been reached, or if an evidentiary hearing is needed.

Respectfully submitted,

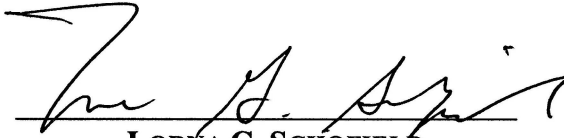

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
